Mike Chess read from the Annual Report that he put together.

Membership: The association has 357 members with one (1) new lifetime member paid tonight, Robert Stack of the class of 1961.

Old Business:

Officer and Committee Reports:

Since there were no none board members in attendance officer and committee reports were dispensed with and will be reported with the board meeting after this meeting.

New Business:

An introduction of those in attendance was requested.

A member of the class of 2007 came with pictures of the 2007 football team to sell, several of those in attendance bought one of the pictures.

Joan Enders the R.A. Long High School librarian was in attendance and spoke about the painters who were the artists of some of the pictures that were refurbished by the alumni association.

Bert spoke about the fact that the association's focus should be to get more members actively involved.

Doug explained the association's involvement in the Hall of Fame and that the Hall of Fame is not just for sports but also for lifetime achievement. He also explained that the association does not have a scholarship program because we do not want to compete with the R.A. Long Foundation or the Booster Club. Doug received a call from the Scharf Family who wanted to donate money towards a scholarship fund and he directed them to the Foundation.

Elections: Bert nominated Doug for another term, Doug accepted, Maureen Young seconded the nomination the call for vote was unanimous. Maureen proposed that we vote the rest of the officers and board as a slate, all accepted, Kim Walters seconded, the call for vote was unanimous. Bob Stack was nominated to the board and the vote was unanimous. Marilyn Reisner has turned over all of the Historian, which is an appointed position, paraphernalia to Dee Whyte. Marilyn has indicated that she has other pressing obligations and cannot devote the time needed to be the Historian.

Meeting adjourned: 7:45 pm by Doug.
Next annual meeting to be held on October 30th of 2007.

Respectfully Submitted by,
M. Helene Watson
